

Wynn Resorts Extends Benefits for All North American Employees

April 1, 2020

LAS VEGAS, April 1, 2020 /PRNewswire/ -- Wynn Resorts (Nasdaq: WYNN), the world's leading resort company based in Las Vegas, Nevada, announced today that the Company will extend paying all salaried, hourly and part-time employees through May 15, for a total of 60 days of payroll continuance. The Company decided to take this action as part of its shared responsibility for the health and safety of its employees, their families and the Las Vegas and Greater Boston communities during this pandemic.

Payroll coverage will include more than 15,000 current Wynn and Encore employees. For tipped employees, it includes the average tip compliance rate or distributed tips/tokes since the beginning of the year.

"It is our shared responsibility to follow the direction of health and safety professionals to stay home, and limit social contact," said Wynn Resorts CEO Matt Maddox. "We owe it to each other, our families and to our community."
