LAS VEGAS, March 18, 2009 /PRNewswire via COMTEX/ -- Wynn Las Vegas is proud to host legendary basketball duo, Coach Bob Knight and Billy Packer, during the 2009 College Basketball Tournament. The legendary duo will be in the Race and Sports Book daily following the games to interact with fans. Their new television series, "Billy Packer's Survive and Advance," will be recorded live on location at Wynn Las Vegas after the games on March 22, March 29, April 3 and April 5. The program features Knight and Packer as they analyze the games with special guests, including prominent coaches and players. Tapings are free and open to the public. Guests of the Sunday, March 22 program include Coach Denny Crum and former players Bill Russell and David Thompson. "Survive and Advance" will air later that evening, at midnight local time, on Fox Sports Net (FSN).

Wynn Las Vegas will host a viewing party during the college basketball games Thursday, March 19 through Saturday, March 21. Fans should visit the Wynn Ticket Office for more information on how to secure guaranteed seating and pre-paid food and beverages.

Wynn and Encore are offering "Get Your Game On" packages from just $199 per night, which include one resort room, guaranteed seating, complimentary snacks and beverages during the games and a chance to catch Bob Knight and Billy Packer live in action daily during the tournament. Packages may be booked online at <http://www.visitwynn.com/getyourgameon> or by calling 866.770.7410.
