Wynn Resorts, Limited sent the following letter to its stockholders on January 25, 2013.

YOUR VOTE IS IMPORTANT
PLEASE VOTE YOUR PROXY TODAY

January 25, 2013

Dear Stockholder:

We have previously mailed to you proxy materials in connection with the Special Meeting of Stockholders of Wynn Resorts, Limited (the "Company"), scheduled to be held on February 22, 2013. Your vote is important and your participation is requested for this important meeting.

The Executive Committee of our Board of Directors (which consists of all directors of the Company other than Mr. Kazuo Okada) has determined that Mr. Okada is an "Unsuitable Person" under our Articles of Incorporation, and unanimously approved the proposal to remove Mr. Okada as a director of the Company (the "Removal Proposal"). The Executive Committee believes that Mr. Okada's removal from our Board of Directors is essential to the Company from a gaming regulatory standpoint. Investigators hired by the Company uncovered and documented, among other things, more than three dozen instances over a three-year period in which Mr. Okada and his associates engaged in improper activities for their own benefit in apparent violation of U.S. anti-corruption laws and in contravention of the Company's Code of Conduct. A link to a report on the results of such investigation can be found below.

The Executive Committee unanimously recommends that our stockholders vote "FOR" the proposal to remove Mr. Kazuo Okada as a director of Wynn Resorts, Limited.

The Executive Committee believes that:

- Mr. Okada has not been acting in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders;
- Mr. Okada undertook the acts described in the previously distributed Proxy Statement despite admonishments that all directors of the Company are required to comply with Company policy and the law, both foreign and domestic, and to adhere to scrupulous business practices and ethics; and
- Mr. Okada's conduct poses a present threat to the Company's reputation for probity, which is fundamental to preserving its current gaming licenses, applying for and receiving additional gaming licenses (including jurisdictions where the Company has recently filed applications) in connection with future projects and maintaining its integrity and stature as a leader in the gaming industry.

The Removal Proposal requires an affirmative vote by holders of two-thirds (2/3) of the outstanding stock of the Company, entitled to vote at the Special Meeting. Accordingly, an abstention or failure to vote will have the same effect as a vote against the Removal Proposal.

According to our latest records, we have not received your voting instructions for the proposal to remove Mr. Kazuo Okada as a director of Wynn Resorts, Limited. Your vote is extremely important, no matter how many shares you hold.

On behalf of the Executive Committee, thank you for your cooperation and continued support.

Sincerely,

Stephen A. Wynn
Chairman of the Board of Directors

- Freeh Report filed on February 22, 2012 as Exhibit 99.2 to the Company's Current Report on Form 8-K. This independent report, prepared by Freeh, Sporkin and Sullivan, LLP, was led by Louis J. Freeh, a former federal judge and former Director of the U.S. Federal Bureau of Investigation. It uncovered and documented, among other things, more than three dozen instances over a three-year period in which Mr. Okada and his associates engaged in improper activities for their own benefit in apparent violation of U.S. anti-corruption laws and in contravention of the Company's Code of Conduct. The activities described in the Freeh Report include cash payments and gifts totaling approximately $110,000 to foreign gaming regulators.
