On March 5, 2015, Elaine P. Wynn issued the following press release:

WYNN RESORTS CO-FOUNDER ELAINE WYNN FILES PRELIMINARY PROXY MATERIALS FOR RE-ELECTION TO THE COMPANY’S BOARD OF DIRECTORS AT THE 2015 ANNUAL MEETING

Wynn Resort Board Seeks to Eliminate the Experienced, Productive and Independent Voice of its Third-Largest Stockholder and Leave Company with an All-Male Board

Las Vegas — March 5, 2015 — Elaine Wynn, a co-founder and the third-largest stockholder of Wynn Resorts, Limited (“Wynn Resorts” or the “Company”) (NASDAQ: WYNN) with approximately 9.4 percent of the outstanding common stock of the Company, today announced that she has filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) preliminary proxy materials nominating herself to be re-elected on the Company’s Board of Directors at the Company’s 2015 Annual Meeting of Stockholders (the “Annual Meeting”), which is scheduled for April 24, 2015.

“As a co-founder of Wynn Resorts and Board member since its inception in 2002, as well as the Company’s third-largest stockholder, my role as a director has been deeply vested in the success of the Company. My four decades of experience in the gaming and hospitality business, coupled with my unique knowledge of the Company, have been invaluable to the Board and the Company’s stockholders, and equally important in the continued development of the Wynn Brand,” said Elaine Wynn. “The Board, without merit and for unclear reasons of its own, has refused to offer me a re-nomination. Instead, the Board chose to exclude an experienced, productive and independent voice in the Boardroom and its only female member. This action not only flies in the face of sound governance practices at any large publicly traded Company, it denies stockholders any meaningful diversity of thought. I firmly believe that different perspectives and constructive dialogue are the hallmarks of a healthy Board, and this action to exclude a strong and knowledgeable voice defies the best interests of our Company and its stockholders.”

Over the past 13 years, Ms. Wynn has served as a director of Wynn Resorts and her re-nomination is backed by enormous merit and contributions. Her focus on elevating the Wynn brand along with philanthropic and community efforts have been immensely important contributions to the Board as it provides direction on the Company’s strategic and brand vision. Furthermore, Ms. Wynn’s deep knowledge of the Company and its operations has afforded her a strong, independent voice on the Board that needs a diversity of opinions.

Ms. Wynn believes that the Wynn Resorts Board has put forth a confusing and misleading set of reasons for excluding her from the boardroom, as set forth in the Company’s Proxy Statement. As such, she believes that the Board is taking steps that create a more homogenous and compliant Board that lacks any representation or influence from Wynn Resorts’ female consumer base. Additionally, and more importantly, Ms. Wynn is known for her active role in holding Wynn Resorts’ management team, including its Chairman and CEO, accountable to stockholders.
